Numb. 6849.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 17. to Monday January 20. 1729.

Moscow, December 15, O. S.

HIS Czarish Majesty has been a little indisposed these four or five Days past, but is now perfectly recovered. Great Preparations are making for celebrating his Marriage, and all the Nobility and Gentry endeavour to outdo one another in Magnificence.

Seville, Dec. 29, N. S. The Queen of Spain being perfectly recovered of her Lying-in, their Catholick Majesties received last Sunday the Compliments of all the Foreign Ministers and the Nobility upon this Occasion; and the 27th Instant they assisted at the Te Deum that was sung in the Cathedral of this City. Preparations are making for hunting at Castel Blanco about seven Leagues from this Place; and their Catholick Majesties intend to stay there a few Days, in order to take the Diversion of hunting the wild Boar.

Stockholm, Dec. 31, O. S. Count Rheenstierna is arrived here from Hambourg; and Baron Stralenheim who is appointed to succeed him, is set out for that Place.

Hague, Jan. 23, N. S. The Consent of the Province of Groningen to the Accession to the Treaty of Seville, was transmitted hither Yesterday as was expected; and this Day the Conclusion was taken in the Assembly of the States General for the Ratification of it.

Whitehall, January 20.

This being His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales's Birth-day, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, upon that Occasion; and at Night there is to be a Ball at St. James's.

South-Sea-House, London, Jan. 16, 1729.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Threadneedle-street, London, on Friday the 23d of this Instant January, at 11 a Clock in the Forenoon, in order to agree upon an Humble Address to his Majesty, that he will be graciously pleas'd to continue the Governour of this Company: And also for the Purpose of declaring the Dividend on the Capital Stock of the Company for the Half Year ending at Christmas last.
